

482

RICHARD JACKSON HOUSE - Before 1850 - 4017 Black Rock Road, south side, 0.6 mile due west of Mount Zion Church. Shown as Richard Cox Tracey's on 1850 map and in 1877 atlas. Now called "Jackson's Hole". Large frame house in vernacular style; covered with composition shingles; gable roof; long sloping shed roof in rear. Original log house was one room, which is now the entrance hall with the new house built around it. Owner: Mrs. Richard Jackson.